Kindly submit this to the Dewan Saheb - Sir the case of order regarding the Lakshmanaswamy's degradation be deferred till the Dewan Peishkar is known concerning the proposal - As I submitted Mr Lakshmanaswamy prefers retirement & reduction - I would let him retire as Civil Surgeon on a compassionate pension - He may also be given leave preparatory to retirement - This is a concession usually granted - The question of condonation is one that requires further consideration

The order of degradation may issue -
— I am not quite certain about the condonation of treat - by which I understand it is meant that the period of four years spent in the College should be allowed to be counted as service - I would consult the Comptroller & Solicitor if the Board still ~~recommends~~ adheres to his disciplinary ~~action~~ decision is not fit to be continued as in the resolution of October of a civil surgeon is it right to let him finish his service that he gradues on his own account subject to any liability to reduction with the status & prestige of a retired Civil Surgeon This requires careful consideration Lakshmanswami is still young & it is within possibility that he may yet work better & get well with a better name

Note Cards ✕ transferred to file No. Med 232 / 802

In Govt Proc: No 5361-2 / Med 816 dated S. No 13 with flag A/1 the 3rd October, 1902, (paper S. No 13) para 4, Mr G. L. Lakshamanasame was reduced in rank to the Apstt Surgeonship of the 1st class. In the same order, para 5, the Senior Surgeon was requested to obtain Mr S. K. Hanumantha Row's explanation (1) as to why he did not acquaint the Civil Surgeon with the fact that the three persons that died were ill and that they were under his treatment, and (2) as to why he did not satisfy himself regarding the cause of their illness before prescribing for the deceased persons the very medicine an overdose of which was said to have brought about their illness, and submit the same with his opinion for the orders of Govt. With his present letter No G 221 dated the 13th Decr, 1902, the Senior Surgeon forwards the explanation called for, and states that in his opinion the explr offered by the Sub Apstt Surgeon is satisfactory and that the Sub Apstt Surgeon and the Civil Surgeon were not in good

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith two letters received from Lt. G. R. Kabir-manavaray, Civil Surgeon of Shimoga praying that he may be allowed to retire from the Service and that the 4 years he spent at the Medical College which constituted a break in his

to be obliged if returned when done with.

his Services may be Considered, this will entitle him to a pension of a trifle over 100 Rs: a month. Taking every thing into Consideration, I am of opinion that this Concession asked for may be allowed him. I have also to request that Government will be pleased to grant him 3 months privilege leave prior to retirement.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,
